

SUZUKI PARENT QUESTIONNAIRE

1. Why did you decide to begin Suzuki lessons?

2. List your top priorities for your child to gain from this experience
:

3. Is there anything that you as a parent are hoping to get out of this investment for yourself?

4. What do you know about Suzuki philosophy? What is attractive to you about the method? What is your previous experience with Suzuki method, if any? Do you have any concerns?

5. Have you or your child already observed any Suzuki lessons and what did you notice?

6. Describe musical background, training, or note-reading experience you have if any.

7. What do you remember about when your child first started learning to speak? What was the environment or circumstances that drew out those first words? What do you think motivated your child to speak and what was your reaction?

8. What can you tell me about your child? Do you have insights on their temperament, learning style, or persistence? What are situations that help them focus or refocus? If they have homework, describe that experience.

9. When will you listen to the recording? What medium will you use (ie, CD, iTunes, playlist)?

10. When will you practice in the day? Will you do one session or multiple bursts throughout the day?

11. Which parent will do the daily practicing? How often do you anticipate trading off with the other parent and how will you keep the other parent apprised of what the student is working on?